Dear Mr. Balasundaram Iyer,

In continuation of my letter No. 5298, dated the 31st July 1918, I am desired to forward for information, a copy of a D.O. letter No. 952, dated the 22nd July 1918, from the Central Publicity Board, regarding the Commemoration of the Fifth Anniversary of the War

Yours sincerely

M.S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of MYSORE.

CENTRAL PUBLICITY BOARD,

D.O. No. 852.

Gorton Castle,

Simla, dated the 22nd July 1918.

Dear Sir,

At a meeting of the Central Publicity Board on July 17th, it was unanimously resolved to invite all Provincial Publicity Boards to organise special efforts to commemorate the Fifth Anniversary of the entry of the British Empire into the War and to bring home to the people of India the gravity of the issues at stake.

The points which it is suggested should be specially emphasised are that this is a War of Men, Munitions, Morale, and Money. Especially since the advent of the United States, the allies have an immense superiority in all these essentials and if they are effectivel utilised, victory must be theirs.

As to the manner in which this should be done, the Central Publicity Board suggest:-

(a) That Heads of Provinces be invited to deliver speeches on the War;

(b) That special pamphlets be issued in English and the Vernaculars emphasising the moral aspects of the war and the power and resources of the Allies;

(c) That special lectures be given in all schools and college

(d) That entertainments be organised for wounded and convalescent soldiers;

(e) That war trophies be exhibited whenever practicable.

The Central Publicity Board will prepare a Retrospect of the War for general circulation. Many other methods will doubtless suggest themselves to you. The broad proposal is that the anniversary be distinguished by a general emphasis of the great principles for which we are fighting and that the observances be stamped with the note of confidence in victory.

Yours truly,
Sd. Stanley Reed.
